

Rose Garneau

April 6, 1909 - October 3, 2007

Rose Garneau, a resident of Cottonwood, Ariz., embraced her life of 98 years, passing away peacefully on Wednesday, Oct. 3, in Sedona, Ariz.

She was born April 6, 1909, to John and Rosa Ueberbacher Likosar in Chicago, Ill., where she grew up, attended 12 years of Catholic schooling and graduated high school from Immaculatta.

Prior to starting her family, Rose worked as an office assistant in the insurance/broker industry in the Chicago Loop.

Rose loved her family and her friends. She was a devoted Catholic.

She enjoyed hiking, golfing, sewing and playing bridge. She and her husband, Stewart Garneau, shared 60 years of life's adventures and challenges in the Chicago, Ill., area, Prescott, Ariz., and Corvallis.

She is preceded in death by her parents; her husband; and her brothers, John Likosar, Anthony Likosar and Walter Likosar. She leaves behind her son, Norm Garneau, with his wife, Marge, of Green Valley, Ariz.; her two daughters, Marcelline Michniak with her husband, Richard, of Darien, Ill., and Barbara Van Wye with her husband, Jack, of Clarkdale, Ariz.; eight grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren — all of whom will miss her dearly!

A funeral Mass will be at 11 a.m. Thursday, Oct. 11, at the Immaculate Conception Catholic Church in Cottonwood. She will be laid to rest next to her husband, Stewart, at St. Mary's Catholic Cemetery in Corvallis at 11 a.m. Saturday, Oct. 13.

Contributions can be sent to St. Mary's Catholic Church of Corvallis, 501 N.W.
25th St., Corvallis, OR 97330.
