

Ross Lewis Westlund

September 27, 1968 - August 19, 2013

Ross Lewis Westlund

September 27, 1968 – August, 19th, 2013

Ross Lewis Westlund, 44, of Corvallis, Oregon, passed away unexpectedly on Monday, August 19 at his home on Vineyard Mountain.

Ross was born in Los Angeles, California, to Robert “Bob” Westlund and Wendy Ross. He grew up in San Marino, California, and graduated from Coronado High School. Following graduation, he attended college and subsequently owned a painting business in Montana and Oregon.

He moved to Corvallis in 2007 to be closer to his father. While In Corvallis, he ran his painting business and was a master of many trades including maintenance, woodworking, construction and landscaping.

He was preceded in death in 2011 by his beloved younger sister, Alison Westlund Hester.

Ross is survived by his mother and father; brother-in-law, Bryan Hester; niece

,Madeline; nephew, Toby; great grandmother, "Tutu"; his cat, Frankie; and numerous cousins, aunts and uncles.

At the family's request, no services will be held.