“ I only knew Grant for a relatively short period of time having met him when he was in his early 90's and while still living in Salt Lake City. He was kind, witty and a very classy man. Grant was highly inspirational and I am truly sorry for the loss to the Thomson family and the many former neighbors who knew him well. May he rest in peace eternally and the remains of his spirit impact those in need of up-lifting to the lofty perch upon which Grant resided.
Regretfully,

I am saddened in Grant's passing, yet at the same time I feel blessed he entered my life and that I could call him a friend. I can't think of Grant without smiling because of his quick wit, sharp mind and dry unflinching sense of humor. On Saturdays during the golf season we both had fun and looked forward to playing putting games and going to Crown Burger for a cheese burger, fries and onion rings. My putting has never been the same since he went to Corvallis. I will miss our friendship.
My sincere condolences to his family.
