“ In 1965 at Philomath Grade School, Mr Seat was my student teacher in Mrs Bodeen's 6th grade class. He was so kind and I knew then that he would be a great teacher. As I became an adult we became friends as my life and his climbed through the ranks of life. Wendell was a huge influence in my life and I always looked up to him.

I am so sorry for his family's loss!

Wendell was the Principal at Kings Valley Elementary school when our girls were in 1st-4th grade. I remember Wendell playing basketball with the students during lunch recess. After he retired we would see each other at the grocery store and he always asked about them. It was a pleasure to know you Wendell. Rest In Peace Wendell 🙏🙏🙏

We have many fond memories of Wendell, but one of our favorites was when he portrayed The Villain in the melodrama 'When The Clock Strike's Twelve', a fund-raiser for outdoor school He was a hoot and a trooper. RIP.
