

William Kenneth Freeman

February 13, 1941 - December 1, 2016

William “Bill” Kenneth Freeman, age 75, of Philomath, Oregon, passed away at Good Samaritan Hospital on Thursday, December 1st, 2016, from complications due to cancer.

Bill was born in Boring, Oregon on February 13, 1941, to Kenneth Eugene Freeman and Ruth Elsie Frieda (Ide) Freeman. He was the youngest of 5 children.

He was a 1959 graduate of Corvallis High School and also attended Concordia Bible College in Portland, Oregon. Later he received a Degree at Linn Benton Community College.

He met the love of his life, Dawn Marie Summers, in 1956, and, after serving his country in the United States Army from 1960 to 1962, they were married on October 27th, 1962. He was affectionately dubbed “Billy” by Dawn. They resided in the Albany and Corvallis, Oregon area. They were married 40 years before Dawn passed away in 2003.

Bill was employed by Mutual Produce, then managed a Texaco Station for several years before becoming an Energy Consultant with Consumers Power, Inc. After retiring, he sold real estate through Landmark Realty.

In his younger years he loved fishing with his brothers, Keith and Gene, and later on one of his favorite activities was going antiquing with wife, Dawn, and their life-long friends Ron and Debbie Shipman.

He would tell you his greatest achievement was his family. He loved them dearly and would do anything for them – from killing spiders, to changing flat tires, to loaning money he didn't really have, to supporting them in any endeavor they showed an interested in.

Bill will forever be remembered as a loving, kind, warm and generous man with a brilliant smile and a big heart. He was welcoming to everyone he met and made an indelible impression on all who were privileged to know him.

“ You left us so unexpectedly Uncle Bill. I will miss you immensley. I will miss your big bear hugs with that little "I love you" whispered in my ear, sharing puppy pictures with you on Facebook everyday, and seeing your big happy smile. I have so many wonderful memories of family holidays and gatherings with all 8 of us kids running around, getting into mischief, then digging into the pile of gifts under the beautiful Christmas tree.
I know Auntie Dawn was there to greet you, and perhaps Jim playing his guitar for you. Rest in peace my dear Uncle. I love you.
