“ I was so sorry to hear that Bill had passed. He was a good man. He cared a lot about his family and friends.

“ I worked with Bill for several years as a vendor that he managed. Bill was always honest, open and fair with me and my company. I appreciated his partnership and always enjoyed working with him. He was a great mentor that taught me a lot about cooperation and teamwork. He left a lasting impression with me and everyone at my company. He will be missed...

“ I met Bill at Mcmenamins on 33rd street and enjoyed a beer with him often. He loved his capital's, Redskins and the Nationals. Oh and his guns. My last conversation was that he was moving to Colorado to spend time with his son. Bill will be missed. Thoughts and prayers are with the family!!
